WHEN LOCAL DOGS HAD THEIR DAY . . . Anti-rabies vaccination shots were given local dogs recently in compliance with the ordinances which specify that dogs must be vaccinated before licenses will be issued Before noon at the temporary clinic set up at the high school last week more than 70 Campbell canines had gone through the line to be shot. ..Some of them protested but most of them took it as part of the "dog's life" they must lead. In the top photo Wynn Beardsley, 917 Camino Drive, kneels with "Teddy" and "Storm" who pose for the cameraman's shots after getting the other kind. In the background from the left are Gerry Hodge, of the County Health Department, Dr. G. E. Martin, public health veterinarian and Bob Walker, rabies control operator. On The Line in Campbell

Approximately three acres were purchased this week by the Campbell American Legion Building Corporation on East Parr for the future home of the West Valley Post No. 158 of the American Legion. The acreage extends to the creek pust north of the conservation water district ditch.

—o—

H. E. Alfson, curriculum coordiinator of the Campbell Union High School District, has been appointed acting principal of the Camden High School, during the sick leave of Principal Dean R. Chamberlin. Chamberlin, principal since the school's opening a year ago, will be on sick leave for a semester, according to school officials.

—o—

Joe Anello was elected president of The Campbell Investors at the meeting of the board of directors of that organization on Monday. Other officers include, Dr. John Hughes, vice-president; Del Lucot, secretary-treasurer; and Ann Marsham, assistant secretary-treasurer. Dr. Hughes will head the investment committee composed of Ray Stroppa, Ken Roberts, Jim Doolittle and Warren Brown.

Postmaster Ira Grim reported reported this week that Mrs. Vera Epperson will be the clerk-in-charge of the San Tomas branch of the Campbell post office. The post office branch will be located in the cleaning establishment at 900 Elam. Henry L. Spencer, formerly in charge of the office in San Tomas, has resigned.

—o—

Work was started this week by the City of Campbell on the remodeling of the former Congregational Church building which the city has purchased and will convert into a city hall. Preliminary work on the change-over is under the direction of W. L. (Bud) Morser, building inspector.

—o—

The Campbell Press will join the select group of newspapers next week in the coverage of the Republican convention in San Francisco George Vierhus, editor and publisher of The Press, has been officially accredited to the convention and will be in the press section on the convention floor for some of the sessions. Lester Lafferty, former publisher of The Press, has "volunteered" to cover for Vierhus at the GOP conclave

City Planners Delay House Setback Ruling for Streets

There will be no discussion at the meeting tonight of the City Planning Commission on official plan lines of either Winchester Road or Campbell Ave. The plans which were presented at the last meeting by the city engineer had been under advisement pending a report from Joseph Bonacina, city attorney. The Commission meets at 7:30 p.m. at the Country Woman's Clubhouse.

Homer Hyde, chairman of the Planning Commission, reported this week that Bonacina's opinion will be delayed until the September 6 meeting of the Commision and further discussion on the plan lines will be continued until then.

The city attorney had been requested by the Commission to rule on whether the City can be forced to set back homes 25 feet, after widening the streets into what is now the front yards of the residents.

Does Setback Apply?

In some cases the widened streets would leave only five feet between the residences and the property line but there still would be another ten feet remaining to the thoroughfare. This ten feet would include the sidewalk and parkway. Under present planning, however, a 25-foot setback is required for new residences. The attorney was asked to rule then on whether this 25-foot setback would apply in the widening situation.

Coonsiderable interest has already been aroused among residents of Winchester Road as to which side of the street the extra width should be taken. West side residents want if off the east side and those on the east side want it off the west. The engineer has recommended that it come off both sides equally.

Other Matters

Other matters to come before the Commission tonight include:

1. A report from Nestor Barrett, planning consultant, on the future of the controversial Roosevelt Redwood.

2. A report from Bonacina is expected on the zone violation status fence on property of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Quinn at the corner of Bucknall and Virginia avenues. W. L. (Bud) Morser, building inspector, reported to the Commission at the last meeting that the fence created a hazard because it was not set back far enough.

3. Two public hearings will also be held. The first one will be on the application of Bert L. Burda for change of zone at 50 Mission Way from residential to commercial. The Burdas, owners of the Campbell Hatchery at that location, had previously asked for a light manufacturing zone but were denied their request in face of the many protests of residents in that area. They withdrew their appeal on that request when they changed their request from manufacturing to commercial.

The other public hearing will be on a zone change application of Serafina Chinazzo from residential to commercial for his property located on the southeast corner of Winchester Road and Kennedy Ave.

Building Permits Take Big Jump Here During July

Building permits in Campbell for the month of July took a healthy jump over previous months, W. L. (Bud) Morser, building inspector, reported this week. A permit for $112,500 for a 18-unit apartment building at 475 Dover Way topped the list for the month which totalled $279,790.

The apartment building permit was issued on July 30 to W. Untiedt, owner of the two lots on which it will be built.

There were permits for 10 homes to the Sara-Sun Development Co., for a total of $97,520. Eight of the homes are to be located on Albert Way with two on Sobrato Drive. Each was valued at $9,752.

Campbell Associates was issued a permit for $42,000 for a store building in the Campbell Shopping Center at Winchester and Latimer with Barrett Construction Co. the contractor for the job. Ainsley Corporation also obtained a permit for a store building at 375 E. Campbell for $9,548 and the Campbell Union School District took a permit out for a $8,400 office building located at 240 N. Harrison.

Permits for five signs totalled $3050 with Garrison & Co. at 356 N. Winchester putting two up at $1650.

Total permits for the year, Morser reported, is $1,347,759 and prior to July monthly reports had not gone above $100,000 since February.

Other building permits for the month included, E. G. Cahill, 113 N. Llewellyn, garage, $1056; Campbell Associates, 349 N. Winchester, sign, $200; Campbell Lumber, 743 S. Winchester, saw shed, $500; Joseph Maral, 70 S. Fourth,

Tree Gets Ally

The Roosevelt Redwood gained another ally this week.

The City Council was informed by a letter from the Campbell Garden Club, signed by the club's corresponding secretary, Thelma E. Thompson, that the club had gone on record favoring the saving of the famous landmark (planted by President Theodore Roosevelt in 1903).

The Council referred the letter to the Planning Commission.

At the meeting of the Commission tonight, Nestor Barret, planning consultant, is scheduled to make a report on his findings on the tree situation.

At the last meeting of the Commission, Barrett made a pitch for such traditional landmarks.

Aquacade Starts Three-day Run at High School Pool

Sponsored by the Campbell Union High School recreation department, the third annual aquacade, using the theme "Twilight Travels", will be held at the high school pool tonight, Friday and Saturday at 8:30 p.m.

Solos, duets and group swimming, colorfully costumed by Fredericka in appropriate native garb from North and South America, Africa, Greece, Spain, France, Scotland, Sweden and the Orient, will be the feature of the evening. There will be modern dance numbers on the deck and a square dance in the water.

This year's soloists are Jill Chambers, Judy Christian, and [illegible] Ramirez. All 29 girls in the show have reported for 22 practice periods on their own initiative. The results obtained from their work have imparted a professional polish to their precision swimming, according to their director, Miss Jeannene Lathrop.

Admission is 50 cents. Tickets are on sale at the pool office now, and at the gate the nights of the show. Proceeds will go to the area recreation fund.

This swim show marks the end of the major part of the recreation program, the grammar school activities and the music program. However, the pool will be open for children's and adults' classes as well as recreational swimming until August 31.

Campbell Will Have Sales Tax No Matter What County Does

There will be a city sales tax in effect in Campbell on October 1 no matter what develops on the overall sales tax front in the rest of the county.

This was indicated Monday when Campbell's City Council got on the county sales tax merry-go-round but left the way open to jump off and go it alone, if the uniform county sales tax ordinance adopted by the Board of Supervisors on Monday does not go into effect on October 1.

County Plan

Under the county ordinance the cities will share 9 per cent of the sales tax revenue with the county. The collection will be made by the State Board of Equalization. The ordinance also contains a clause making it effective only if every city in the county agrees to it.

By resolution on Monday the Campbell City Council agreed to accept the county's proposition but held up the adoption of its own enabling ordinance until the county gets the word that all the cities are in line. If the word is not forth-coming by August 27, the local City Fathers will adopt their own one-cent levy which will be collected by the city with all the revenue going into the city treasury.

The City of San Jose, along with Campbell and a number of other cities, on Monday agreed to go along wlith the county plan but the City of Milpitas may prove to be the stumbling block in the county set-up. There are 14 cities in the county.

Milpitas Stands Alone

Milpitas officials have indicated that their city is not about to give up any sales tax revenue to the county. It has an ordinance which will go into effect when, and if, the county measure does. It calls for Milpitas to keep the entire penny.

Hamilton Ave. Widening Job Gets No Bids

Because no bids were submitted by contractors for the Hamilton Ave widening project on Monday the completion deadline for the job will have to be extended for several months, possibly until next spring.

And the councilmen were "not happy" about this postponement of one of the first major street improvement jobs to be undertaken by the city.

However, City Attorney Joseph Bonacina informed the Council that he would proceed with the negotiations with various property owners involved and that he planned to have either the easement grants or resolutions of condemnation ready for the August 27 Council meeting.

City Engineer Mark Thomas said the contractors declined to bid on the job because they were uncertain when the public utilities could be moved. The utilities must also obtain easements to move their facilities back from the road. The street will be widened from Winchester Road to Central Ave.

Other Activities

In other activities, in the long-drawn out meeting which lasted until almost midnight, the City Council:

(1) Referred to the traffic enginner (Councilman Richard Morton) and Police Chief Robert Locke a petition from 57 residents of Cypress, Christopher, Rincon and Bucknall avenues, in the Westchester Park area, asking that (1) a four-way stop sign be placed on W. Rincon and Cypress; (2) Cross walks be placed there (75 school children cross there daily); (3) double lines be painted on the street. Mrs. Henry Hamann, 170 S. Cypress, headed the list of signatures.

(2) Referred to traffic engineer the requests of S. A. Smith, 481 Century Drive, for a sign "not a through street" on Century Drive and of Jim Foster, 815 W. Century, for a reduction of speed limits in the same area and on Virginia Ave. from 35 to 25 miles per hour.

(3) Postponed until August 27 any action on the proposed new ordinance on outdoor advertising for Rout 5 freeway.

New Ordinances

(4) Ordered published Ordinance 107, the annexation of the Barbano property at San Jose-Los Gatos Road and Campbell Ave. and Ordinance 108 establishing fire zones in the city. Both ordinances become effective in 30 days.

(5) Approved the county sales tax plan.

(6) Referred to the Planning Commission a letter from the Campbell Garden Club asking that the Roosevelt Redwood be saved if possible.

(7) Approved the annexation of approximately 50 acres south of the present city limits along the railroad tracks to E. Parr Ave. by giving the annexation ordinance its first reading.

(8) Referred to the city attorney, the request of the Charles Engdol Construction Co. for extension of time limit for the Latimer Park subdivision. Charles Engdol of the firm appeared before the Council on the matter.

(9) Approved the request of J. Bothelia, Jr. to move a house from 350 Pamlar to Hacienda provided he had the proper insurance coverage and at the same time allowed him a three weeks extension to move the Marvin Blue house

Mayor to Act in Role of Mediator In Local Dispute

Mayor John M. Chargin will take on the role of mediator in an effort to straighten out the misunderstanding between residents of Hawthorne Ave. and Nelson Bros. Trucking.

The mayor was authorized Monday night by his fellow councilmen to see if an amicable settlement could be worked out in the controversy. The residents claim that the Nelson Bros. operation is causing an unnecessary inconvenience to those who live in the neighborhood.

The trucks operate, they told the Council, at all hours of the night. The trucks also raise dust and dirt that settles on the homes and yards, they said. They maintained that the trucking firm has promised to build a fence along the parkway to hide some of the unsightliness that exists under the present operation but no fence has yet been built.

All these complaints were contained in a letter presented to the City Council Monday night. The letter was signed by most of the residents on the street and many of them were present at the meeting to present their grievances orally.

Mrs. Stanley Farmer, 569 Hawthorne, one of the instigators of the movement to see if something could be done about the situation, told the Council that they were in an attractive residential area but that the unkempt parkway detracted a great deal from it. She said that many of the neighbors had cooperated in cleaning it up but that it was impossible for them to do a complete job. She supplemented the letter with a series of six photographs illustrating the unattractiveness of the parkway

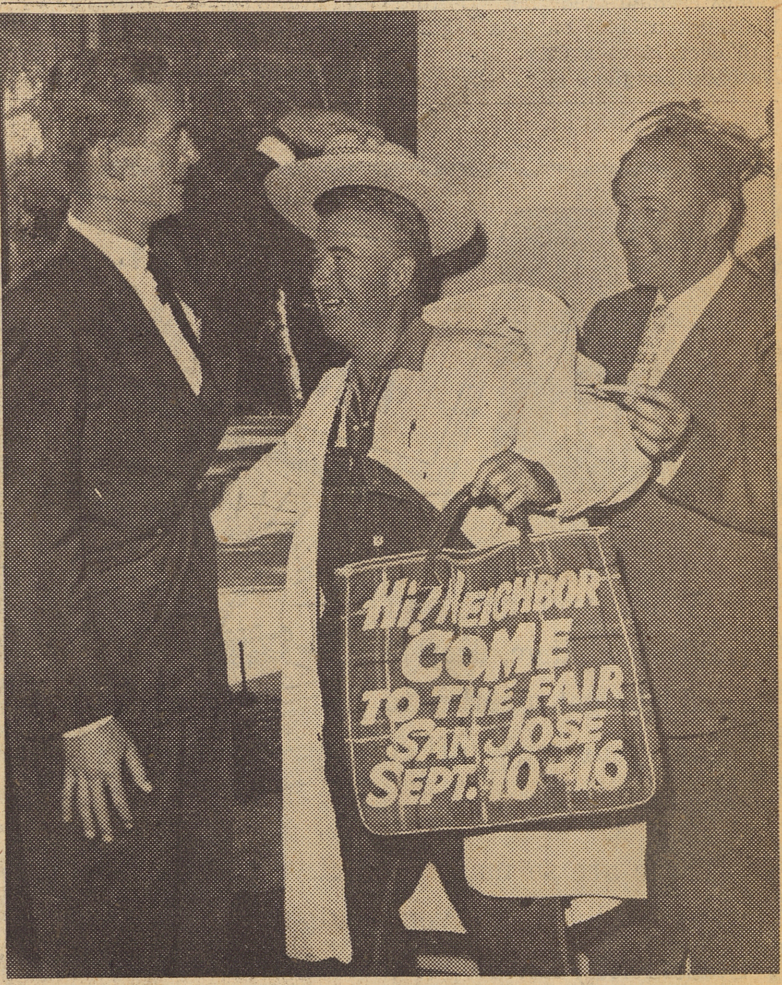
ON VACATION

Mrs. Gussie Baker, superintendent of the Moreland School District, reported this week that the administration staff of the district will be on vacation until August 27.

"AIN'T GOIN' TO LIVE IN THIS HOUSE NO LONGER" . . . Campbell firemen received practical training in fighting a house blaze Sunday morning but they started and ended the fire themselves. An old berry-picker's shack on West Campbell Ave., donated by Councilman Charles Rose was used for the drill. Pictured are some of the firemen standing by as the flames get in their last licks. Chief Jack Scott reported that the drill was highly successful and that the fire department received cooperation from other agencies both city and conuty.



CHEERY FARMER OFF AGAIN . . . Ebb Bohn, of Campbell, employee of the Richmond-Chase Co., gets an official send-off to perform his duties as the Cheery Farmer of the Santa Clara County Fair, from Ned Richmond (left) and Bert Legg, of Campbell, company officials. The Cheery Farmer will be the amabassador of good will for the fair and greet youngsters during fairtime. Bohn this week appealed to all talented youngsters to contact him to take part in the amateur shows he plans to put on as part of his pre-fair activities. The fair dates are September 10-16.

SC County Fair Sponsors Second Golf Tournament

An estimated 200 California golfers are expected to enter the second annual Santa Clara County Fair 36-hole medalist golf tournament to be held September 8 and9 at the Almaden Country Club in San Jose, according to Cleo Smith, tournament chairman.

All qualified California handicapped golfers are eligible to enter the tournament, and Smith said entry blanks will be available at all bay area golf clubs.

Persons interested in entering the tounrament also may contact George Bruno at the Almaden Golf Club or by phone, ANdrew 9-1130. Entry deadline is September 4.

Golfers will play on a par 72 championship course measuring better than 7000 yards. The course is in beautiful shape and is relatively new, being opened a year ago Easter, Smith pointed out.

The tournament is sanctioned by the Santa Clara County Fair committee and is handled by the Almaden Country Club. Tournament entry fee is $5.

Campbell Stamp, champions of the first half of the Campbell Little League, but ending in third place in the second period, became the Campbell Little League champion for 1956 by defeating Western Gravel last Wednesday by a 4-1 score.

Western Gravel won the right to meet Campbell Stamp after winning from Herb Raymond 2-0 in the play-off for the second half crown. Both teams on the previous Monday had ended the second half in a deadlock.

In both play-off games stellar ball was played by the Little Leaguers who showed terrific improvement from the start of the season and played like real "pros" in both games.

Monday, August 6
(second half play-off)

Western Gravel	2	3	3
Herb Raymond	0	3	3

The winning run in this ding-dong battle, won by the Gravelers 2-0, came in the first inning when John Short walked, stole second, and came home on Joe Newland's base hit. This was the sole earned run of the game.

In the sixth, Western Gravel added one more run when Joe Newland again singled and then came home on errors.

Pitching for Western Gravel was John Short who struck out 11 and did not issue a single pass. He was in serious trouble only in the fourth when Larry Elizondo and Lonnie Raymond got back-to-back singles.

Western Gravel	1	4	1

A big 3-run rally, coming when there were two outs in the third inning, won the ball game (and the season championship) for Campbell Stamp from Western Gravel by a 4-1 score.

In the third, Paul Hewitt started it off, getting on base on an error. Ron Speno then doubled in Hewitt. Frank Testa came to bat and singled Speno to third. Bert Cobb then supplied the final punch as he cleared the bases with a double.

Dave Buck was the winning pitcher. He only gave up one unearned run while striking out 13.

Unique Milking Parlor Features SC County Fair

A new milking parlor with the latest in modern milking equipment is under construction at the Santa Clara County fairgrounds. The new structure will make it possible to milk 60 cows an hour and ship 100 gallons of milk per day to milk processors during fair week, according to M. S. Beckley of the dairy industry committee.

During past years milk from dairy cows being shown at the fair, was cooled and fed to the hogs. The new system will provide for a modern refrigeration system, pipe line milkers, milking machines, coolers and stainless steel milk vents.

"It will be one of the most modern milking parlors of any fair in the United States," Beckley said.

Beckley explained the parlor would provide an excellent opportunity for city dwellers to observe the modern methods used in milking cows. The structure will be made of pimas blocks and sheet glass, and cows are to be placed on platforms enabling interested spectators to view convenienty the procedure from the outside.

Fairgoers will be ableto see the milking in the late afternoons during fair week, September 10-16. The building will house four cows at one time and the milking procedure takes from three to four minutes.

Fairs Continue To Draw Visitors

Another big weekend of county fairs. flower shows, rodeos, sports contests and musical programs is coming up for Californians and their visitors, reports the State Chamber of Commerce. One of the uniquely interesting events is Santa Barbara's "Old Spanish Days" Fiesta which takes participants back to an era when castanets echoed in courtyards and the busy outdoor market was a place where everyone gathered to meet his friends.

The cantaloupe-growing community of Firebaugh pays tribute to its pet product with a gala three-day celebration that promises plenty of fun. The Lake Tahoe to Auburn trail ride gives horsemen and women a chance to see some of our state's loveliest and most historic countrysides. Petaluma's Fourth District Fair offers one of the largest Junior Fairs in the State along with a tremendous junior livestock show.

Amateur and professional gardeners will find many interesting displays: begonias are the pride and joy of Capitola's Festival; the beds of begonias, fuchsias and roses at La Canada's public gardens are an unforgettable sight; dahlias are on display at Huntington Beach, and Carmel's annual Garden Tour provides a chance to see pelargoniums, fuchsias, begonias and more in all kinds of gardens, from spectacular grounds to small, intimately landscaped gardens.

All Eight Teams Of Two Leagues Play in Tourney

With the championship of their respective leagues already decided, play started last Saturday in the inter-Little League tournament with all eight teams of the Cambrian and Campbell Little Leagues participating.

Finals in the tourney play were played on Tuesday of this week with Mac's Market facing Herb Raymond. Double-headers were scheduled at both the Rosemary and Steindorf fields during the tournament, although the Methodist Men of the Cambrian League on Saturday had to forfeit because they could not field nine men.

Partial results of the tournament play:

Saturday, August 11

Robins	0 0 2 0 0 0
Herb Raymond	0 1 2 0 2

	R	H	Er.
Robins	2	0	4
Herb Raymond	5	4	1

Lonnie Raymond of Herb Raymond's team turned in a no-hitter against Robins of Cambrian. Although he struck out 11, he walked the same number. His difficulty in finding the plate accounted for the only two runs the Robins scored. The Robins showed their skill on the base paths. Steve Wilson featured this phase by stealing home in the third stanza.

Getting base hits for Herb Raymond were Dave Avery, Lonnie Raymond, Mike DeVita and John Zintz, each getting one hit off the stants of Spence Caudle.

Saturday, August 11.

Campbell Stamp	2	2	2
Mac's Market	6	2	3

Mac's Market, having dominated the Cambrian Little League, continued the same pace as the Marketeers turned two hits into six runs to defeat Campbell Stamp 6-2. Big Buck allowed his wildness to put too many runners on the easy way and successive singles by Bill Holland and Al Brasile with men aboard was Buck's undoing.

Western Gravel	0 3 0 0 3 0

Short and Langford; Willett and Coleman.

	R	H	Er
Western Gravel	6	8	2
No Cal Const	1	1	1

John Short slammed the door in the face of the No-Calers in this contest after allowing a run across in the first inning. The final count was 6-1. Short struck out 10 while allowing only one walk and a triple by Gary Stambaugh.

Monday, August 13
(at Steindorf)

Mac's Market	4 0 3 0 0

Batteries: Krug and Langford; Bowman and Holland.

	R	H	Er
Western Gravel	1	4	4
Mac's Market	7	3	1

Led by catcher Bill Holland, the Marketeers took advantage of all miscues to take the Graveleers 7-1. Dean Bowman pitched a one hitter and struck out six batters.

COUNTY GETS TRAILER FEES

Robert C. Kirkwood, State Controller, this week reported that Santa Clara County has received $52,891.60 as its share of the first semi-annual apportionment of trailer coach license fees for the period December 1, 1955 to May 31, 1956. A total of $1,900,200.69 was distributed to the counties of California, Kirkwood said.

Mineral production in California for eight consecutive years has exceeded a billion dollars.

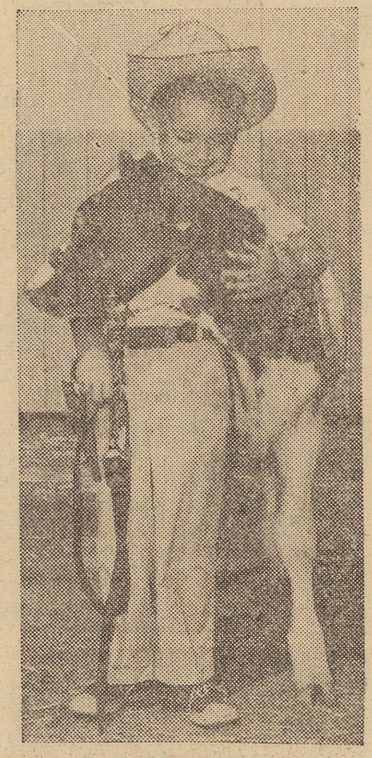
ALL-STARS PLAY

In the final activity for the season for the Campbell-Cambrian Little Leagues, the all-star teams from the two circuits will meet tonight in the first of the two-out-of-three game series.

The all-star battles will take place at the Campbell Little League field at Rosemary School. Play ball time is set for 6 p.m.

At press time the Cambrian Little League managers had not announced their rosters but Ted Bohn and Ron Citta (co-managers of the all-stars who handled the champion Campbell Stamp team in the league) announced the 15-man roster for Campbell with representatives from every team.

The Campbell all-stars announced were: Lonnie Raymond, John Martinez, John Zintz, Howard Allen, Mike DeVita, from Herb Raymond; John Short, Jerry Krug and Joe Newland, Western Gravel; Steve Fryar, Mike Overhulse, Campbell Lumber; Randy Sutton, Frank Testa, Dave Buck, Ronnie Speno and Bert Cobb, Campbell Stamp.



COWPOKE 'N CRITTER . . .

"Joey", the Ayshire bull, and Douglas Paul, the wee wrangler, aren't about to let anything come between them at the California State Fair Grounds. This kind of mutual devotion between animal and boy will be duplicated thousands of times in FFA and 4-H departments at the State Fair August 29—September 9 in Sacramento.

Marketmen Win Cambrian League

No play-off between the first and secoond half winners was needed in the Cambrian Little League for Mac's Market sailed through the season winning both halves.

Manager Bob Tomkins' team showed good hitting and good pitching plus a well-balanced defensive unit. The most improved team, however, according to most observers, was Coach Fred Remer's Northern California Construction Company.

In the opinion of correspondent for The Press, the most improved player for the season was Ronnie Pointer, catcher for the Methodist Men. As "rookie-of-the-year", if such a prize would be awarded, the same correspondent would hand it to scrappy, hard-hitting lightweight Eddie Sauer, backstopper for the Robins.

Rotary Hears of West Valley Hospital Need

Dr. Robert Wade spoke recently before the Rotary Club on the hospital situation in this area with special reference to the West Side Hospital District.

Dr. Wade quoted the Stanford Research Institute's Survey which showed that a 100 bed hospital would be needed in this area by 1960. He also brought out that there are nof 40 doctors in the area as opposed to 19 in 1950. He emphasized it is feared there will be an increasing shortage of hospital beds in spite of the expansion planned by O'Connor and San Jose hospitals.

If the West Side district were to authorize a bond issue, they should expect that a 100 bed hospital would cost about $2,000,000. They should expect an operating deficit the first year, but after that it should pay its own way, according to Dr. Wade.

He stated the main weakness of the present site is its inaccessibility. At the rate the west side is building up, that weakness will soon be overcome. The Campbell area makes up 49 per cent of the assessed valuation of the district with Los Gatos about 35 per cent and Saratoga about 16 per cent.

The Rotary Club is planning a barbecue for August 27 at Pete Stewarts.

WALK CORRECTLY

When you're walking in traffic, play it safe, advises the California State Automobile Association. Don't make a running bluff with an automobile—you've got nothing to win and everything to lose. Use the crosswalks and use them correctly.

SO WE LOSE A CUSTOMER

The Campbell Press lays claim this week to the questionable distinction of being the first victim in the battle on the local postal front between Rex Kaber and Postmaster Ira Grim.

As a direct result of this paper's reporting of the current hassle between the accused, Postmaster Grim and his accuser, Rex Kaber, The Press has lost a long-time customer who has spent approximately $1200 per year with us for some time.

Kaber took exception to the account of the controversy that appeared in The Press last issue. He has informed us quite emphatically that no longer will The Press do any of his commercial printing, which in a year's time adds up to a sizeable figure.

The commercial printing department of The Press for the past eight yeas or so apparently has given Kaber, who operates a light manufacturing concern, satisfactory service. Otherwise this amicable relationship would not have continued over such a long period of time. Kaber's printing bill with us averaged about $100 per month. This is not hay in any language.

We are sorry, naturally, to lose such a customer because the $1200 that Kaber has paid The Press each year has been a big help in the paper's operation.

So let's not kid ourselves. We are not in such an enviable independent financial position that we can tell anyone we choose to go peddle their papers. We cannot afford to lose $1200 per year without wincing a bit.

So we wince.

But it still has not changed our attitude. We will continue to operate under the same principles as always. We will keep on doing to the best of our ability a fair and factual job of reporting the activities of this community. We will try to call 'em as we see 'em.

But in this particular case, apparently factual reporting was not satisfactory enough for Mr. Kaber.

He took exception to the following paragraph in the news story in last week's Press: ... "Grim was accused by Kaber of delaying a shipment of mail and also of burning a quantity of third class circular mail at Christmas time that was supposedly undeliverable" ...

Kaber maintained that the mail was "deliverable" not "undeliverable" and would not concede that by using "supposedly" the meaning would have been the same in either case. We differ with him on that count.

So Kaber struck at where he thought it would hurt the most: to wit, our pocketbook.

The loss of $1200 per year does hurt, but not enough to change our ideals, policies or attitudes. These remain unchanged despite the grievous wound to our pocketbook.

As a result of Mr. Kaber's action, "undeliverable" in this instance probably becomes the most expensive word in the English language. He claims it was the cause for him to sever a satisfactory business arrangement of some years standing. But we are not convinced that the use or misuse of this one word was the sole reason for Kaber's bitterness toward us.

We know he would have liked to see The Press take up its little hatchet and start after Grim's scalp, following the pattern set by him. He feels pretty strongly about this local postmaster situation and has become quite embittered over it. By placing such a high price tag on one word he has indicated how seriously he has taken the entire matter, personally.

One of the perils of newspapering is that an editor can easily become so entangled in personal feuds that he loses his perspective. We hope we can always keep ours, even at the expense of losing some dollars and cents.

The post office department investigated the charges made against Postmaster Grim and then announced that the postmaster had been reprimanded, but would continue in office until his retirement in March, 1957.

So despite any sniping from the sidelines, that is good enough for us.

We sincerely feel that we will not serve any useful purpose to add more fuel to flames and stimulate the ill feeling that has already been aroused both in and out of the post office.

And we will continue to report the news and activities of our community to the best of our ability.

Any further questions?

GOOD WORK, PRICE, QUALITY NOT ENOUGH

Satisfactory work performed at a reasonable price and delivered within a reasonable period of time is usually enough to keep most printing customers satisfied. It has evidently been enough to keep one of our largest printing customers, Mr. Rex Kaber, satisfied up to now. However, as the result of the situation discussed in the preceding editorial, Mr. Kaber has just notified the Campbell Press commercial printing department that his work is going elsewhere with no little emphasis.

There have been times in the past when we have kept Mr. Kaber waiting, but there have been many more times when we have worked evenings and weekends over the past eight years to satisfy his needs. The relationship has been most pleasant, more so because of the fact that his account was always kept current. So as the person who handled his work, we (Cliff Cassiday, plant foreman) are very unhappy to see him leave. There is no feeling of enmity, rather let us say simply that we are happy to have been able to serve Mr. Kaber.

However, there is one point we would like to make clear. In "passing the buck" to George Vierhus, editor, as having been responsible for the policy and news stories that have appeared in the paper, may we say that we heartily agree with the statements as set forth in the preceding editorial. We would have done the same.

LAW IN ACTION

INJUNCTIONS

Your newspaper often carries stories about court orders—"injunctions"—which, as a rule, prevent some person from doing some harm.

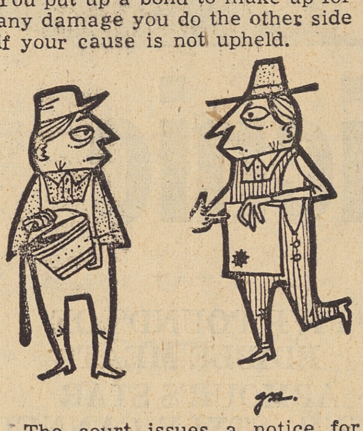
In one week recently your newspapers told how courts had issued injunctions to protect the owner of a patent or copyright, to stop someone from putting up a building which would harm the health of the neighbors, to prevent "unfair competition," and to stop certain practices in strikes and boycotts.

An injunction is an "extraordinary" remedy like writs of mandamus, habeas corpus, and the like. It got its name because the English king or his chancellor used to issue such orders when the run-of-the-mill court actions could not solve the problem at hand.

As a rule you get a "temporary" injunction to keep someone from doing something, say, until you can get a law suit underway.

Sometimes, though, you get permanent injunctions which would stop someone from doing some harmful thing—like using irrigation water to which you are entitled, or from dumping pollutants in a stream you use.

Usually, if you want an injunction, your lawyer will take sworn statements into court to show that your grievance is one which only an injunction could take care of. You put up a bond to make up for any damage you do the other side if your cause is not upheld.



The court issues a notice for the other side to appear and "show cause" why the injunction should not be issued.

The other side may come in court also with sworn statements. Usually in a short time the court will hear your case on the merits.

If you get an injunction, you must serve it on the other side, and if he disobeys the order the court may fine or jail him for "contempt of court" and force him to obey its order.

Note: California lawyers offer this column for you to know about our laws.

Only Three Per Cent of Campbell's Teenagers Have Polio Vaccination

ta Clara County's teen-agers are protected against poliomyelitis through vaccination, W. Elwyn Turner, M. D., Director of Public Health, reported this week. This means that approximately 20,000 children 15-19 years of age have little or no sure protection against polio.

Though the incidence of polio is higher among the younger children, many of these cases are of the non-paralytic type, where as in teen-agers and young adults, the cases are frequently paralytic and more severe.

With the height of the polio season in Santa Clara County expected the latter part of September, Dr. Turner stressed the importance of the polio vaccinations as soon as possible. He urged all parents not to wait until school opens to give their children this protection since the rise of polio cases begins before that date.

Supply Available

An ample supply of vaccine is available in the offices of private physicians throughout the county. The State Department of Public Health has lifted all restrictions on the use of commercial poliomyelitis vaccine. Persons of all ages now are eligible to receive vaccine from their private physician.

Health Department clinics are scheduled every Tuesday through Friday during August at the Santa Clara County Health Department, 2220 Moorpark Ave., San Jose, from 1:00 p.m. to 5 p.m.

The eligibility age limit for Health Department clinics remains at 0-19 years and pregnant women. These limits are fixed by law under the Vaccination Assistance Act of 1955.

Parents Accompany

Children under the age of 12 years attending Health Department polio clinics should be accompanied by a parent or guardian since written permission must be given for the vaccination. Older children need not be accompanied by an adult but must present a statement of consent signed by a parent or guardian.

Expectant mothers must present written permission from their private physician.

All Health Department clinics will give third injections of polio vaccine seven months after the second shot.

OUT on the LIMB
George Vierhus

We have long known that it is impossible for a newspaper to please everyone. If we ever needed verification of that, we could get same almost every time the paper comes out. If it doesn't prove anything else, it certainly indicates, at least that people do read the paper, for which we are grateful despite the mental bruises we often receive from callers.

—o—

In the morning, Homer Hyde, chairman of the Planning Commission, suggested that we were a trifle incomplete in our report of the commission's discussion on the official plan lines for Campbell Ave., and Winchester Road.

His point was well taken.

In our story we said that no house-moving was necessary, although in some cases only four-feet would remain between the house and street when Winchester Road was widened.

—o—

Homer said that such a statement was misleading. Actually he explained in the few cases where there would be only four feet to the property line the property line would still be a good 10-feet from the street.

We agreed that our story was a trifle incomplete in that respect and told Homer we would try to straighten things out in future reports.

We are certain, based on the reaction so far, that there will be ample opportunity to write about it. Both sides of the street are bound to be heard from.

—o—

In the editorial on this page, we cite the reasons how come we lost a $1200 a year printing job through another paragraph that appeared in the paper last issue.

Rex Kaber announced his cancellation of business relations with us the same day the paper came out.

—o—

Late in the afternoon of the same day Herb Raymond, manager of the Herb Raymond Little League team, called to tell us that there was a mistake in the sports story on the Little League results of the week. We wrote that Campbell Lumber had defeated Herb Raymond's team 7-1.

We really got twisted on that deal. We had the right score but Herb Raymond won instead of lost. Campbell Lumber won their only two games of the year that week but the Lumbermen beat Campbell Stamp and Western Gravel.

We are afraid we gave Herb Raymond a pretty bad time on the phone. However, we called him later to apologize for our attitude and he graciously accepted our apology.

In fact we got so rough on the phone (we guess we were felling pretty sorry for ourself at the time) that Herb decided to cancel his subscription.

To make matters even worse, we insisted on him cancelling his subscription after he had more or less understood why we were burning. We didn't know we could be that stupid. But we were. We certainly don't blame Herb for getting riled either.

However, we are happy to report that after we had regained our senses, we humbly called Raymond to tell him that we weren't always thataway.

Even if Ike had called us at that time, we probably would have acted in the same way.

Temper. Temper.

—o—

During the day also we had to listen twice (each time for about 15 minutes) to Mrs. Anna Cooper explain to us why she thought the Roosevelt Redwood should come down. Mrs. Cooper was around Campbell at the time Teddy planted the tree. She also had a number of other tidbits to report about Campbell.

She said she didn't want to make her stand publicly known through the paper. But we felt it should be inasmuch as she took the trouble to call us.

Mrs. Cooper claims the tree is going to die anyway.

—o—

In case you are getting the idea that things are always dark nnd dreary at our office, we must report also that there is often a bright side to the picture.

There IS a credit side to our ledger, too.

Acting as our brightener-up this week was Mrs. Nelson Cowdery, 112 N. Second St.

Mrs. Cowdery brought us some corn that was grown in their garden which is practically down town. She said they will have fresh corn from their garden from now on until past Thanksgiving because the 12 rows of the corn were planted at different times.

The Cowderys, who came here from Ohio 12 years ago, sent back to Iowa, the corn state, for the seed. Some of the stalks tower more than nine-feet, she reports.

We much appreciated the thoughtfulness and the corn of Mrs. Cowdery. We were tickled and flattered by her comment that she liked this column and that was the reason she dropped in to meet us. She also paid her subscription for two years more.

Our morale got a real lift, and it could stand it.

There will be some cynics that will say we don't need any more corn. This column is corny enough. So we will say it for them.

Two G.O.P Leaders To Attend Dinner

For the first time in the history of Santa Clara County, two Republican leaders of Congress will attend a formal function in San Jose when U. S. Senator William F. Knowland and Representative Joseph Martin of Massachusetts meet at the GOP $100-a-plate dinner to be at the Hawaiian Gardens on Monday, August 27.

The presence of U. S. Senator Knowland was announced this week by Ernest H. Renzel Jr., chairman of the Santa Clara County GOP United Finance Committee and co-chairman with Edwin C. Nelson of the dinner committee.

Senator Knowland's presence means that he will introduce Martin, GOP minority leader in the house, as speaker for the dinner, an assignment previously reserved for Ex-President Herbert Hoover before it became known that important commitments in the east would prevent Hoover from attending.

Legion Opposes Proposition 12 As Undemocratic

Proposition 12 is contrary to the principle of democratic government by an informed electorate, according to a resolution adopted by the recent state convention of the California Department of the American Legion.

The resoultion calls the state ballot measure a step backward in the effort of the people to retain control over their government and its actions affecting their lives and prosperity. The convention action asked Legionnaires throughout the state to oppose the measure and take steps to insure that the people of the state are alerted to the implications of the proposition.

Proposition 12 on the November general election ballot would eliminate the requirement that the state publish public notice of proposed state bond issues which are to come before the electorate for vote. It goes beyond merely eliminating the public notice on state bond issues, and would place in the Constitution a broad statement that no notice to the public other than the statement mailed with the sample ballot is necessary on "matters to be voted upon by the people".

The question has been raised as to whether this might lead to attempts to place all manner of bond issues and other ballot questions on ballots, local as well as statewide, with no notice to the voters other than a pamphlet mailed a few days before election.

State Board Ups Grant to Aged Throughout State

Increases of $4 for each needy aged and blind person and $2 for each needy child was authorized by the State Social Welfare Board during a public hearing in the Employment building in Sacramento recently.

Acting chairman Mrs. Jackson Chance of Menlo Park stated the action was taken to adopt rules and regulations to conform with the provvisions of the Welfare bill President Eisenhower signed recently to provide additional money to aid recipients without increased cost to the State of California.

The federal funds will be available October 1 and will increase the needy old age grant from a total of $85 to $89 and needy blind from $95 to $99 for each person on the welfare rolls in California.

The needy parent or caretaker of children in the Aid to Needy Children program will also receive a $2 increase.

The reduction of the age limit to 62 years old for the receipt of federal old age survivor insurance benefits by women does not affect the age limit in the welfare assistance programs which remains at

LOOK UP!

POWER LINES ARE OVERHEAD

NUT POLES ... plus carelessness around power lines ... cause fatalities in California every year. A farmhand is shaking nuts from a tree with an aluminum or steel pole, or perhaps a wet wooden one. He fails to LOOK UP! The nut pole touches an overhead electric line. Death often results! California law requires employers to keep men and equipment away from power lines. So tell your farmhands and remember it yourself. Always look up when using a nut pole. Always take care with irrigation pipe, well-drilling rigs, hay derricks, cranes and TV antennas.

LEGAL NOTICE

ORDINANCE NO. 107

BEING AN ORDINANCE OF CITY OF CAMPBELL APPROVING THE ANNEXATION OF CERTAIN CONTIGUOUS UNINHABITED TERRITORY TO CITY OF CAMPBELL, A MUNICIPAL CORPORATION, DESIGNATED AS CAMPBELL ANNEXATION 1956-4, IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE PROVISIONS OF SECTION 35300 ET SEQ. OF THE GOVERNMENT CODE OF CALIFORNIA.

WHEREAS, the City Council of City of Campbell, California, did heretofore on June 18, 1956, initiate proceedings for the annexation of certain uninhabited territory continguous to the boundaries of City of Campbell, and

WHEREAS, said action by the City Council was supported by the written petition from the owner of not less than one-fourth (1/4) of the area and of the assessed value of all the land proposed to be annexed, and

WHEREAS, the City Council of the City of Campbell, did, on the 18th day of June, 1956, pass and adopt its Resolution of Intention to annex said uninhabited territory, hereinafter described, lying outside of and being contiguous to the boundaries of the City of Campbell, which said Resolution fixed notice of the day, hour and place where any person owning real property within such territory so proposed to be annexed and having any objections to the proposed annexation might appear before the legislative body and show cause why such territory should not be so annexed, and

WHEREAS, the said Resolution and Notice was duly, regularly and lawfully published for two (2) successive weeks prior to such hearing in the Campbell Press, a newspaper of general circulation, published in the City of Campbell, and for two (2) successive weeks prior to such hearing in the Los Gatos Times-Observer, a newspaper of general circulation published outside the City of Campbell but in the County of Santa Clara, State of California, proof of said publications having been made by the affidavits of the publishers on file with the City Clerk of Campbell and

WHEREAS, true copies of said Resolution and Notice were fully and regularly mailed by said City Clerk to each property owner in said area proposed to be annexed as shown by the last equalized assessment roll in Santa Clara County and as required by the provisions of Section 35311 of the Government Code of California as amended and all other requirements of said Government Code with respect to the annexation of uninhabited territory having been complied with; and

WHEREAS, such hearing was held pursuant to said Notice contained in said Resolution on the 30th day of July, 1956, at the time and place fixed therein, and

WHEREAS, such hearing was not less than fifteen (15) days nor more than fifty (50) days from the date of passage of said Resolution, and

WHEREAS, at the said hearing there were no protests by any owner or owner of one-half (½) of the value of the territory proposed to be annexed, according to the last equalized assessment roll of the County of Santa Clara, State of California, and

WHEREAS, the City' Council finds that the territory proposed to be annexed is contiguous to the boundaries of the City of Campbell, and that the same is uninhabited territory as defined by said Government Code of California and that 'the annexation of the same would be for the best interest and general welfare of the people of the City of Campbell, and

WHEREAS, all of the said territory is within the boundaries of Central Fire Protection District of the County of Santa Clara, State of California, and that it is for the best interest of the people of the City of Campbell that said lands hereinafter described be withdrawn from said district.

NOW, THEREFORE, THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF CAMPBELL DOES HEREBY ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION 1. That the annexation of the uninhabited territory hereinafter described be, and the same is hereby approved, and that the said territory be, and the same is hereby annexed to the City of Campbell; and that the territory affected by this approval and the proceedings heretofore had shall be commonly known as Campbell Annexation 1956-4 and described as all that real property situate in the County of Santa Clara and more particularly described as follows:

All of Lot No. 11, Tract No: 588, Barbano Subdivision, a map of which is filed for record in Book 22 of Maps, page 48, Santa Clara County Records.

SECTION 2. That all lands hereinabove described be and the same are hereby withdrawn from Central Fire Protection District of the County of Santa Clara, State of California, and that an appropriate resolution be adopted withdrawing the same in accordance with the provisions of Section 14540 of the Health and Safety Code of the State of California.

SECTION 3. Pursuant to the provisions of the said Government Code of California, the City Clerk shall and she is hereby directed to file with the Secretary of State of California, a certified copy of this ordinance immediately upon the said ordinance becoming effective.

SECTION 4. The City Clerk is hereby ordered and directed to file with the office of the Recorder of the County of Santa Clara in which the City of Campbell, a municipal corporation, is located, an affidavit stating that all requirements of the law pertaining to such proceedings for annexation have been complied with. Be it further provided that this said affidavit shall be accompanied by a certified copy of boundary descriptions as set forth in the annexation proceedings and also by a map delineating such boundaries.

SECTION 5. That all expenses of proceedings for the annexation of the said uninhabited territory be paid, and the sums be, and they are hereby allowed.

Harris made an impassioned appeal to the Council citing the grievances that had accumulated over a period of years.

The residents were told that there was very little the City could do in the matter because it affected private property mainly. However, Council members felt that if both sides were able to talk things over, an understanding could be reached.

It was at Morton's suggestion that Mayor Chargin was authorized to act as mediator.

Public Utilities Assessed Values Take Big Hike

Assessed valuation of public utilities in the county increased by more than 17 per cent over last year, the State Board of Equalization announced last week. The utility figure set for Campbell was $861.150.

The valuation for the entire county is $65,287,720, a jump of $9,654,540 over last year.

With the utility figure Campbell's total assessed valuation is now $9,295,170 compared to last year's $7,388,740.

Assessments of the utilities by the board showed a 11.6 per cent state-wide increase over those made a year ago.

Utility properties in the state were assessed at $2,854,807,880. The 175 concerns subject to state assessment have two weeks in which to protest these valuations. After that the utility rolls will be sent to the counties for extension of some $175,000,000 of local property taxes, according to George R. Reilly, First District Member of the State Board of Equalization.

These preliminary state-assessed values, together with preliminary county-assessed values of over $18,870,000,000, bring the aggregate local property tax base for the 1956-57 fiscal year to approximately 21.7 billion dollars. It is predicted that the taxes levied on this base for the support of counties, cities, school districts, and other local governments will approximate $1,300,000,000.

Every county in the State shared in the increase in the assessments of utility properties, with 22 counties showing increases in excess of the statewide average. Los Angeles showed the largest dollar incrase—over $84,400,000, or 12.4 per cent; while San Luis Obispo, due in large part to the completion of the Pacific Gas and Electric Morro Bay Steam Plant, made the greatest relative gain—39 per cent over 1955.

Roy Archibald, Long-time Banker, Dies in Hospital

Roy Archibald, 64, who had lived in Campbell since he was a year old, died Friday in a San Franscico hospital.

The Rev. Dell Hollenburg officiated at funeral rites at 1 p.m. Monday from Williams Funeral Chapel. Burial was at Oak Hill Memorial Park. Pallbearers were G. E. Farley, E. H. Gustafson, Herman Hardke, George Jeffers, T. A. Robinson and Dave Sanders.

At the time of his death he was assistant cashier in charge of real estate loans in the San Jose branch of the American Trust Co. He would have retired in another month.

He had been a member of the local Congregational Church for more than 50 years. He was treasurer for 36 years, resigning this spring in anticipation of plans he and his wife had made for travel following his retirement.

He had been in banking since the day after he was graduated from high school, when he went to work in the Campbell bank, under John Duncan. During his career, he served as manager of the banks in Campbell, Saratoga and Santa Clara, as the Campbell Bank merged with the old Garden City Bank and Trust Co., then with the American Trust Co.

He was active in community organizations, both here and in San Jose. He leaves a widow, Eva, a son Winfield L. Archibald, and two grandchildren, William Roy and Carolyn Mae.

PLANNING ON PLANTING?

GARDENER'S CHECK LIST

By The California Association of Nurserymen

REMINDERS

1. These bedding plants can be set out for winter color—Stocks, Violas, Pansies, Baby Primrose, Calendula and Snapdragons.
2. Divide an reset crowded perennial plants.
3. Cut back Hydrangeas after they finish blooming and fertilize once.
4. Water French Lilacs and Bush Peonies sparingly. By causing them to go dormant prematurely you will increase flowering next spring.

Fuchsias for the Shade Garden

Today, enthusiasm for cultivating the fuchsia rivals that of the rose. For this ornamental shrub can be successfully grown in varying types of climates throughout the state.

The Fuchsia, named for Leonard Fuchs who was the first to begin botanical terminology, is native to Central and South America, Mexico, the West Indies and New Zealand. These countries possess the climatic conditions that best suit the Fuchsia — humidity, partial shade, moisture, and a great deal of food. But recent hybridizing has developed varieties that will thrive even in the hot, dry climates of the California interior valleys, if properly shaded.

No matter where you garden—hot valleys or the ideal coastal fog belt—the Fuchsia should be grown in shade. If the climate of your locale is dry, you can easily create the damp growing conditions that the Fuchsia likes, according to the California Association of Nurserymen. Container cultivation is excellent for Fuchsias; they can be hung in shady places on your porch, lanai, patio or terrace. Upright varieties are readily grown in tubs on the patio floor.

The first step in growing Fuchsias in containers is to select the trailing varieties which, of course, are best suited for hanging baskets, portable planter boxes and tubs. The list of trailing varieties is a long one, but some of the outstanding names are Anna, magenta and carmine with free-flowering, huge double blooms; Marinka with bright red, profuse single blooms; and Aurora Superba in orange. A variety that has proven fine for the hot, dry interior valleys, is Amapola in orchid-rose and pink, with large, semi-double flowers and a vigorous habit of growth. New Western Fuchsias for 1956 include several trailing varieties: Conspicuous, light and dark rose shades; Summer Snow, all white; Mayflower, light and dark pink; and Monstera, magenta and crimson.

When you've selected the varieties you want to try in hanging containers, the next step is to choose the RIGHT container—whether it be wire and moss baskets, redwood boxes or ceramic pots. The boxes or pots are popular now, and justifiably so, for the boxes keep soil cool in warmer climates while the pots (the unglazed clay ones) provide excellent drainage.

Into the container put at least 1/3 leaf mold, about 1/3 well-rotted cow manure and 1/3 sandy loam. You may mix some peat moss into this combination if you are sure you can keep your Fuchsias watered properly. Peat moss, homever, must be kept moist constantly for once dry it's almost impossible to moisten again. Scatter in some bonemeal if you like; it won't act on the plant for some time, and will give an added lift when the plant blossoms.

Plants in containers must be taken out every other year and the roots cut back. At the beginning of the growing season in alternate years, scrape off the top inch of earth and fine roots and replace with the recommended soil mixture. Container-grown Fuchsias must be watered and fertilized more often than those in the ground. Maintain an even moisture content; avoid watering when the sun is directly on the plant. On warm days an overhead syringing is recommended.

Plants for Modern Gardens

Many California homes today are designed along modern lines of architecture. To complete the style of design, gardens can be planted with tropical palms, bamboos and grasses that fit well into a modern atmosphere.

Two Bamboo grasses especially suitable for a modern garden are the variety Golden Goddess and the Dwarf Bamboo (Sasa pygmaea) varieties. The Goddess is very picturesque with slender yellow canes and well feathered golden stems. The Dwarf grows to ten inches in a feathery, delicate manner.

Pampas grass (Cortaderia Selloana) is classified as an evergreen shrub but it is really a giant ornamental grass. It grows with saw-toothed grassy leaves accentuated by one to three foot high plumes of white or pink.

Another ornamental grass suitable for modern gardens is the Pennisetum villosum or Feather Grass. A native of Abyssinia, it grows with long, narrow leaves and spikes, headed by long, feathery bristles.

Two small plants that make handsome modern plantings are the Dwarf Umbrella plant (Cyperus alternifolius nanus) and the Ddarf Paper-reed (Cyperus papyrus nanus). The Umbrella plant grows two feet tall, topped with umbrella-like heads. The Dwarf Paper-reed puts out attractive yellow-green tassels at the end of each stem.

Another Paper-reed plant, the Egyptian Paper-reed (Cyperus papyrus) reaches six feet. Its stems are headed with feathery foliage and the leaves are stalk-like and dark green.

Ferns and Succulents fit well into a modern setting. The Tasmanian Tree Fern (Dicksonia antarctica), an attractive plant and the hardiest of the tree ferns, grows to considerable height and will take sun on the coast. It can also be container grown. In Succulents, the Agave attenuata makes a handsome small planting and may grow to 15 feet with greenish yellow flowers.

If you're planning a modern garden you'll find your local nurseryman a great help for he can give you authorative advice on the correct varieties and species of grasses, bamboos, palms, succulents or whatever plants you choose to make up your modern garden.

Ivy Geraniums

An illustrious member of the Geranium family is the Ivy Geranium for this hardy perennial functions well as a green ground cover or as an outdoor container plant.

Pelargonium peltatum is the Ivy Geranium's botanical name, and it derives its popular name from its bright green leaves which resemble those of the ivy vine. Clusters of single and double white, pink, rose, red and lavender flowers bloom profusely on the plant. These flowers are often attractively splotched in contrasting colors.

The trailing habit of the Ivy Geranium makes it ideal for ground cover in sloping areas or along parking strips in the milder areas of California.

'Miss Campbell' Tries for County Crown on Sunday

"Miss Campbell" selected last Thursday night by the Campbell Junior Chamber of Commerce will vie with 15 other young lovelies from other cities of the county Sunday afternoon when "Miss Santa Clara County Fair" will be named.

Miss Dolly Geis, 21 years old, who resides at 51 N. Central, Campbell, won top honors in the local judging contest in which five girls competed. She is 5 feet-8-inches tall, carries a well distributed 125 pounds and boasts of the following essential measurements 36-23-35.

A pair of 9-year-old twin girls have been selected to assist at the Miss Santa Clara County Fair queen contest to be held at the fairgrounds Sunday at 2 p.m. Sharon and Karon Szenasi, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Szenasi of San Jose, will aid in the making of introductions of the queen candidates in the Exposition Hall.

The 16 girls representing 16 different communities of the county, will compete for the honor of reigning as queen of the 12th annual County Fair, September 10-16. A queen and two princesses will be chosen by the judges on the basis of personality, appearance, voice and diction.

Ebb Bohn, who again will be the "cheery farmer" for the Santa Clara County Fair, appealed this week for talented youngstres to contact him to form amateur troupes to publicize the fair.

Rotary Governor Visits Local Club

Members of the Campbell Rotary Club on Monday heard George P. Chaffey, governor of 155th district of Rotary explain that every club is an individual case but all of them are united in the free world to promote international understanding, good will and peace.

The district governor prior to the meeting met with the officers of the club headed by Merv Willoughby, president and Forrest A. Reese, secretary.

The governor whose 51-club district extends from Hollister to Crescent City is a resident of Vallejo where he served as president of Rotary. He told the local members that they should try for three main objectives (1) keep Rotary simple; (2) indoctrinate new members into the spirit of Rotary and (3) live up to the principles of the club. He emphasized that the spirit of service should be above self interest.

Sorority Alumnae Meet at Andres Home Wednesday

The Eugen C. Andres Jr. residence on Flamingo Drive was the setting last night for the Chinese dinner which is the traditional August meeting of the San Jose Kappa Kappa Gamma Alumnae Association.

The hostess committee was Miss Martha Thomas, chairman, Mrs. Frances Moore, Mrs. Juanita Watts, Miss Anita Colombet and Mrs. Edwin S. Beall.

Following dinner a business meeting was held to plan for the annual rummage sale. Kappas are active in assisting the Visiting Nurse Association and in supporting the active chapter at San Jose State.

Helen Andres gave a report of the National Convention in Swampscott, Mass., which she attended, while touring the East with her daughter. At this convention the local chapter received the outstanding award for alumnae evcellence.

The local group is planning an area council meeting for Northern California to be held at the chapter house in San Jose September 28. Any Kappas in the area are cordially invited to attend.

KIWANIS HOLDS BARBECUE

The Kiwanis Club dispensed with speakers, chairman, luncheon and program when they met for their annual stag barbecue at the Ray Bishop ranch. Broiled steaks were the order of the evening. There was some discussion of next week's meeting, which will be an inter-club with Los Gatos at their luncheon on Thursday, August 23. This will take the place of the customary Tuesday meeting.

San Francisco is the home of the 12th District Federal Reserve Bank.

Wakemans Mark Golden Wedding

Judge Earl Wakeman and his wife celebrated their Golden Wedding in their new home in Altadena recently. He has been active in law in Los Angeles for more than 40 years.

Judge Wakeman was a resident of Campbell until at 25, he married. He graduated from Campbell Grammar School in 1897, before the high school was established. He daily rode his bicycle over to Santa Clara High, and graduated from there in 1901.

He attended Stanford University and got his A. B. and J. D. from there. He and his wife met in college, and were married there while they were still in school.

Earl Wakman played cornet in the Campbell Brass Band, and any family that had a new baby in those days received a serenade. He was instrumental in establishing the Campbell Library. With the help of Russell Kennedy, he collected money enough to hire the store at the Sutter Block at Campbell Ave. and Central Ave.

In those days the library consisted of books and magazines which people donated. Earl and his friends took turns acting as librarian.

Earl Wakeman was active in the Campbell Congregational Church. He was elected Santa Clara County Superintendent of Junior Christian Endeavor. During this time he arranged a County Convention, which met in Ainsley's Cannery.

In recent years his activities have been concentrated on the Republican Party. A highlight of his wedding anniversary was a congratulatory message from President Eisenhower.

LA PETITE JUENE FILLE . . . Little Sandra Lee, with her mother, Mrs. Gerald Collier, returned to Campbell recently after 18 months in Chambley, France, where their father and husband was assigned as civilian radar instructor for the U. S. Air Force. It wasn't long after their arrival that Sandy amazed her parents with her knowledge of the French language, and she soon became the family interpreter in all transactions with French-speaking people.

Gerald Collier Family Returns to Campbell After 18 Months in France

It did not take Sandra Lee Collier very long to learn to speak French like a native during the year and a half she lived in France with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Collier, while her father carried out his assignment as civilian radar instructor for the U.S. Air Force in Chamblay, France, about 150 miles from Paris.

Sandy was a little over four years old when she and her parents went to France and it wasn't very long before she amazed her parents with her ability to understand and to speak French.

The first time her parents became aware of her aptitude with the language was when the family was dining in a cafe and having a difficult time making the waiter understand their order. Apparently realizing her parents weren't making as much progress with the language as she was, Sandy finally came to rescue and rattled off their order in what sounded like and turned out to be fluent French as they were served their meal just as they wanted it. From that time on, Sandy became the family interpreter in all family business dealings, where ability to speak and understand French was necessary. Her mother reports that she did a very competent job of it, too.

Sandy displayed a streak of independence and initiative at an early age, according to her mother and one of the first things she did was to enroll herself in a kindergarten soon after the family's arrival in France. It seems she struck up a friendship with one of the sisters from a nearby school and was invited to attend the kindergarten and aapparantly it sounded like a good idea to her as she started in right then and there and when she came home for lunch and told her mother she was going to kindergarten, and her mother, thinking it was another "pretend" game, went along with the game, and was quite surprised to learn that Sandy really was attending kindergarten. Sandy attended the French kindergarten for the rest of the term, and enrolled in the first grade in the American school for Air Force children the following term.

Her ability to "compre" proved to be helpful at the American school, too, particularly during an incident when the school bus was involved in an accident with a motorcycle. When the drivers involved got nowhere with their gesticulations, little Sandy was again called upon to bring about an understanding between the Frenchman and the American.

The Colliers took advantage of their stay in Europe and visited several other countries, including Belgium, Holland, Germany, Luxembourg and Switzerland.

Since returning to the States, Mrs. Collier and Sandy have been staying with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bowling of East Campbell Avenue awaiting Gerald who was unable to take the trip back here with his family.

Sandy and her mother have been visiting their many friends and relatives since their return. Last week Mrs. Bowling, Mrs. Collier and Sandy took a trip to Los Angeles to visit Mrs. Colliers brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bowling and their children, Martha, Cheryl and Cliffy.

Other visitors at the Bowling home are Mrs. Bowling's sister and family, Mrs. Stanley Tawrdowski and children Ronnie and Cary from Iron River, Michigan.

The Colliers will remain in Campbell for a short while until Gerald receives his next assignment, which they hope will be in California somewhere.

Camp Fire Girls Attend Day Camp

Campbell, Cupertino, and Los Gatos Bluebirds and Campfire Girls are spending this week at day-camp at Blackberry Farm.

During the day the 85 girls in the camp cook over a campfire, swim, hike, and lead a camper's life. In addition they have lessons in crafts, dramatics, games and folk dancing. Each night they return to their own homes.

Mrs. Leslie Jauncey is camp director and Mrs. Harry Smith is co-director and dramatics counselor. Mrs. Beryl Garcia teaches crafts, Miss Connie King, folk dancing and Mrs. Ray Coe archery. Mrs. Carroll Briggs is water-front director.

Unit Counsellors are Mmes. Harold Shanks, Harold Danner, Thomas Cardona, Tomlin Mulford, C. A. AufderHeide, Philip Coppedge, Joseph Muttkowski, Vernon Johnson.

Churches Join In Social Work At Migrant Camps

Three churches in this area are taking an active part in the migrant camp social work directed by the division of Home Missions of the National Council of Churches.

The program is similar in all the camps. A group of young people goes out once or twice a week with games and books for the children, horse shoe games for the men, volley ball and baseball for the teen agers and a sewing machine and sewing equipment for the women. The meetings are closed with movies—usually a religious movie—and a short devotional.

The Senior Pilgrim Fellowship of the Congregational Church will have a marshmallow roast at Camp Castro tonight. Verla and Laura Raab, Ellen Yelinek, Betty Pollard, Judy Weymouth, Pat Weymouth, Rita Moore, Linda Edgmon, sponsored by Mrs. George Bean and Mrs. Charles Richards will be in charge of it.

At the Cambrian Park Methodist Church the entire Methodist Youth Group is taking an active part. This week Tom Margraves, Connie and George Bulkley, Linn Green, Susan Kay, and Bob McOllon will be the six high schoolers who will go out to Mabie Camp.

There are 10 out-of-state college girls led by Mary McFarland from the Division of Home Missions who are working in different migrant camps conducting vacation bible schools. The various women's organizations of churches of the valley have united to prepare their lunches for them.

In this area Mrs. A. T. Burke of the Methodist Church has served them lunches at the Methodist Church, Mrs. Romer Knight has served them lunches at the Cambrian Park Methodist Church, and Mrs. W. C. Bohnett has fed them at her home, since the new Congregational Church does not yet have its kitchen set up.

The Methodist Young People's Society has been working at Driscoll Camp near Morgan Hill.

COUNTY GOP DINNER DRAWS BIG WHEELS

Nationally high ranking Republicans have been invited to attend the GOP $100-a-plate dinner to be held at Hawaiian Gardens in San Jose on Monday, August 27.

Rep. Joseph Martin of Massichusetts, GOP minority leader and speaker of the house in the last two congresses which the Republicans controlled, will be the speaker.

Among the Republican party leaders who have been invited to attend the dinner are Vice President Richard M. Nixon, and U. S. Senators William F. Knowland and Thomas H. Kuchel. Approximately 600 persons are expected to attend the dinner.

Fresno County's 1954 mineral production was valued at $115,192,747.

YOUNG COUPLE TO OMAHA AIR BASE

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shockley have moved to Nebraska where Bob, airman 2nd class, has been transferred to Offutt Air Force Base near Omaha.

Bob, who graduated from the local schools, and San Jose State, had his basic training at Parks Air Force Base. From there he went to Perrin Base in Texas, where he met and married the former Miss Dora Barrow of Dallas, Texas.

The couple were married April 18, and spent two weeks in June with Bob's parents, the C. W. Shockleys of Campbell.

They have an apartment in an Omaha suburb. Bob will be an architectural draftsman for the air force until at least two years

DELEGATES ATTEND VFW DISTRICT MEET

The Byron Lanphear Post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars sent three delegates, Adeline Gaglaisso, Edith Smith and Ralph Jones, to the district meeting at Palo Alto last week.

They heard a report on what the district had accomplished this quarter and directives for the next quarter.

At the meeting of the Auxiliary Tuesday night, their delegates will report on the Palo Alto meeting. Edith Smith and Adeline Gaglaisso will provide the refreshments.

The Auxiliary held a luncheon at Alice Keyes home on Sierra St. Tuesday of this week to raise money for their national cancer fund.

RESIDENTS ATTEND GOLDEN WEDDING

The Hamilton Ave. home of Ben Davison was the setting Sunday for the Golden Wedding celebration of Ben's youngest brother, Royce "Nate" Davison, and his wife Eva.

Ben is an active member of Kiwanis Club and old timers recall that he was one of those who attended "The old high school over the grammar school." His sister Nina, who graduated from Campbell High in '04, was also present, as were most of the descendants of Nate's father, L. B. Davison, as well as many friends of the honored couple.

All of Nate and Eva's family were there, children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. Nate and Eva now make their home in Laytonville, and a week of celebration there preceded the Campbell affair. In Laytonville, on the actual anniversary of their wedding, August 8, the Legion Auxiliary staged a "repeat wedding".

Dairying, cotton growing and cattle production account for about one-third of the total value of California's agricultural production.

Ada Rebekahs to Hold Sale Here

The Ada Rebekah Lodge is holding a rummage sale tomorrow and Saturday in the empty second-hand-store between Central and First on East Campbell Ave.

The proceeds will be used for the IOOF Home on Fruitvale Ave.

Mrs. Julius Bachman, aided by her husband, is chairman. Mmes. Ralph Gardner, DuBois Rhine, Joseph Meckler, Thomas G. Fladager, William Bachman, Fred Fellman, Walter Wyckoff, Herman Rice, Fred Carlton, Zeno Hallett and Mrs. Lillian Ohlen will also be on the committee.

The Rebekahs have added the Blood Bank to their list of interests. At their last meeting Mrs. T. G. Fladager gave a report on the Bank. She urged any member who was able to give blood at once as it is urgently needed.

Local Teachers Plan to Attend School 'Workshop'

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin A. Roll, both teachers in the Campbell system, will attend the Educational Workshop to be held at Santa Barbara College from August 22-31.

The session is an outgrowth of the Governors Conference held in Secramento last September, which Roll attended as an invited delegate. It is an attempt to solve the problem of the teacher shortage.

It is sponsored by the California Council on Education, the State Department of Education, the California Teachers Association and the California Congress of the PTA. Each of these groups will send representatives, and the session is open to anybody working on the problem of the teacher shortage.

The sessions will have a three hour workshop period, where the students are broken up into small groups to discuss specific subjects. Then there will be a two hour general session at which each group will offer a summary of its findings. A detailed agenda has not been set up, but there will be groups interested in college courses for prospective teachers, another on how to interest people in teaching, and one on "in-service training" among others.

Estella Smith, Bernard Crishan, Jr., Wed in Ceremony at St. Lucy's Here

Estella Margaret Smith was married to Peter Bernard Crisham Jr. at 10:30 August 11, in a wedding ceremony at St. Lucy's Church.

The nuptial mass was performed by the Rev. Denis Kennelly, who officiated at the weddings of the bride's older sisters. All five of the Smith children were married at St. Lucy's.

When the bride went down the aisle on her father's arm, she wore a tight bodiced, long sleeved, V neck, lace gown with a front inset of accordion pleated tulle in the full skirt. The chapel train was lace, as was the finger-tip veil.

The prayer book she carried had been carried by many brides in the groom's family. With it she had salpiglossis and a white orchid. She also carried the handkerchief carried by her mother and her two older sisters at their weddings.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Stephen Ridgeley, Jr., was her matron of honor. She wore a gown of aqua-colored crystallette, made in princess style. She carried a bouquet of white carnations.

The four bridesmaids were Della Crisham and Patricia Chrisham, both sisters of the groom, Patricia Fox, a cousin of the bride, and Regina Koehler, the bride's sister. All wore aqua crystallette, identical with the gown of the matron of honor, and carried aqua colored carnations.

The three-year-old niece of the bride, Victoria Smith, was flower girl. She preceded the bride carrying a basket of aqua carnations. She wore a white princess style crystallette dress.

Louis O. Normandin, III, was best man. The ushers were James Ruane and James Kelly, both cousins of the groom, and Salbador Licardo and Frank Koehler.

Mrs. Fred Smith, the bride's mother, wore a pale blue suit with a white velvet hat and white gloves. Her purse and shoes were black. Her corsage was white baby orchids.

The mother of the groom, Mrs. Peter Bernard Crisham, wore a navy blue ensemble with white accessories and a white velvet hat.

Miss Janice De Resche was the organist, and Miss Clarinda Di Lonardo sang "Ave Maria", "On this day, O Beautiful Mother" and several other solos.

Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party adjourned to the Villa Felice for the wedding breakfast.

Mrs. Fred Smith served a buffet luncheon in her rumpus room at her home for 75 relatives and out-of-town guests. That afternoon she entertained about 150 at the wedding reception. The four tiered weddiing cake was topped with white bells, candles and flowers.

After the reception, the couple left for Carmel, then up the coast to Oregon and Washington. The bride's going-away ensemble was a black and white sheath dress with a black duster. She wore a white hat and gloves with black shoes.

When they return they will live in a cottage on San Tomas Road until the groom graduates in business accounting from San Jose State in February. The bride will teach a kindergarten class at Moreland School, where she did her practice teaching.

The groom will probably be called to the service next spring, and their future plans will depend upon his assignment.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith of San Tomas Rd., and received her education in the local schools, graduating from San Jose State this June. She is a member of the State Newman Club and of Delta Phi Upsilon.

The Smiths have four other children, John P. Smith of San Jose, Francis W. Smith of Saratoga, Mrs. Stephen Ridgely of Cambrian Park, and Mrs. Frank Koehler of San Jose.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bernard Crisham of Coe Ave., San Jose. He was educated at St. Leo's, Bellarmine, Santa Clara University, and San Jose State, where he was a member of the Newman Club. He has two sisters, Della and Patricia Crisham.

Senator Thompson Urges 'Yes' on '3'

State Senator John F. "Jack" Thompson this week urged the voters of Santa Clara County to support Proposition Number 3 which will appear on the November ballot. This proposition would authorize a $200,000,000 bond issue to finance the State building construction program for the next five years.

In supporting Proposition Number 3, Senator Thompson said that it will provide the greatest building program this county has ever seen.

"Santa Clara County will be effected materially if this proposal is passed by the people, and will be awarded projects totaling many millions of dollars between now and 1961", he pointed out.

"Agnews State Hospital alone will be increased by an estimated $12,202,988 and it will include a great many additions to San Jose State College which is of utmost importance to our area, out of which will be spent $2,500,000 for site acquisitions, plus many new buildings, a total for 28 projects of $29,366,837.

Local Soldier Gets Parachutist's Wings

Army Pvt. Paul F. Ziegler, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Ziegler, 824 Lovell Ave., Campbell, recently was graduated from the 82nd Airborne Division's Jump School at Fort Bragg, N. C.

He received his parachutist's wings after completing the three-week course, which included five training jumps.

Ziegler arrived at Fort Bragg from an assignment at Fort Ord, Calif. He entered the Army last February.

Ada Rebekah Lodge 223

The Past Noble Grand Club will meet next Thursday at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. J. M. Dahl, 13730 Beaumont Ave., Saratoga. Mrs. Fred Carlton will be co-hostess.

Mrs. J. M. Dahl is chairman and Mrs. Bart Kilgallin, Mrs. Walter Wyckoff, and Mrs. Joseph Meckler will help her at the gadget party which will be a feature of the Tuesday meeting of the Rebekahs.

"How old am I?"
asks Mrs. George Mosle,
867 Cedar Street, San Carlos, California

"Mommy looks just like a teen-ager," said eight-year-old Terry Mosle, when we snapped this picture. And it's true—as you can see with your own eyes!

Like thousands of modern mothers, Betty Mosle looks (and feels) years younger than her age. One big reason: modern household appliances. They free her from so many chores that used to make women old before their time.

Betty, who's thirty and mother of three (Terry, 8; Phillip, 5; Wayne, 2) makes the most of these labor-saving appliances. Do you?

Here's the beautiful part about it: With gas and electricity so cheap in California you can run a houseful of appliances all day for less than half the price of most leading face powders.

MILEAGE MINDER

Major New Automotive Engineering Achievement

Stops flooding, saves gas. Prevents rough idling, dying, difficult starting, traffic stalling, excessive gas fumes in the car, carburetor wear, gas waste. Traps all metal and dirt. Ends vapor lock. For new and old cars. Anyone can install in minutes, between fuel pump and carburetor, with end wrench and pliers. Complete with fittings and instructions.

HERE'S HOW IT WORKS

From fuel pump, gas surges in unregulated, hammering pulsations.

1. Lifetime micro-porous filter removes all dirt, dust and metal particles—even small as .001"!
2. Patented spring-loaded dual neoprene diaphragm (guaranteed 50,000 miles) tames hammering pulsations to smooth, even flow.
3. Vapor-locking gasses are harmlessly trapped in vapor dome.
4. Steady, clean, economical flow of gas is delivered to carburetor.

SAN TOMAS SUMMARY

Isabelle Pechin
FR 8-8040

The Lovell Ave. bridge is under construction. It was torn out in last winter's flood in an attempt to minimize flooding. Since then San Tomas residents have been forced to travel about a mile out of their way.

Accordiing to the County enginerr's office, the actual work of construction should take less than a week.

The San Tomas Baptist Church is holding a study course for the entire family this coming week. They are meeting Monday through Thursday from 7 to 9.

Miss Becky Short is the visiting teacher from Sunnyvale who is directing the course. Mrs. Virginia Hanks will direct the juniors and Geil Davis will take charge of the adults.

Refreshments and some special music, or other feature of entertainment will be offered about 8 each evening.

Howard Greer is busy slabbing up the specimens he got on his recent trip along the eastern slope of the Sierra Nevadas. He considers his choicest specimen a 4x4 piece of petrified palm he found near Palo Verde. He also found agate, jasper, obsidian and Apache tears.

The Greers started collecting at Bodie and worked South, within 35 miles of the Mexican border. They were camped in an abandoned school house near an old sulfur mine out of Cold Dale, Nevada, when a cloud burst sent a gully-washer within ten feet of them. It rained every day but one of their ten day trip.

Below Palo Verde when they were out on a collecting trip they encountered another cloud burst which filled all the gulleys and slowed up their trip back to camp.

They were camped out near Searchlight, Nevada, when a deputy sheriff, investigating cattle rustling, saw their lights and came out to question them. Finding them peaceful "rockhounds" he wished them good luck, and went back to town.

Howard says that he eventually works up his ricks into bracelets, necklaces, or brooches, and once in a while ear-drops. Sometimes they turn out to be predominatingly red, sometimes green, or sometimes brown.

He has an idea that the material he is slabbing now might work up into a necklace of agatized jasper and petrified wood, probably brown in color.

Den 2 of Cub Scout Pack 35 camped overnight at Smith Creek recently. Den mother Mrs. Carl Cada and her husband, assisted by Boy Scouts John Casey and Charles Cade gave the Cubs 30 hours of swimming, hiking, tracking, and out door life. C. W. Neale and Frank Maggi helped transport the boys up to the camp site Saturday morning and home Sunday afternoon.

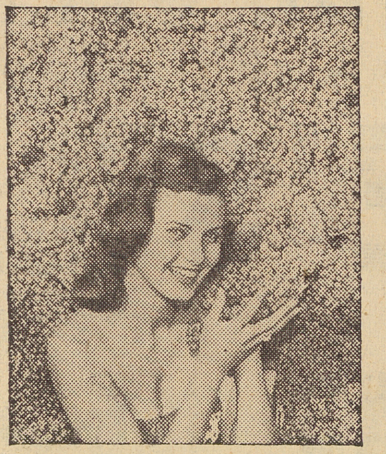
Cub Scouts Michael Maggi, Richard Cade, Danny Neale, Terry Sanchez, Bobby Walker, Kenneth Brand and Glen Wolfram were the boys who went on the overnight. They also inspected the fire look out station at Mt. Hamilton.

Friends of Clara Wheeler will be happy to hear that she is recovering from her recent ilness.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Anthony and their children, Cheryl, Gregory, and Danny were visitors at the Ray Martin home last Wednesday and Thursday.

The Anthonys drove up from Los Angeles and back to visit their grandmother, Clara Wheeler, who is living with her daughter, Marge Martin.

The Mariners met at Westhope Friday for a "Sing-song". Refreshments were served, there was special music, but the main attraction was the opportunity to join in the group singing.



OCEAN OF GRAPES . . . Barbara Stager, model of the California State Fair and Exposition, August 29- September 9, demonstrates two reasons California is famous—grapes and pretty girls.

OPEN RANGE

Most people know what the roadside sign "OPEN RANGE" means, but in case you're not one of them, read this: "Open Range" means the highway you're driving on is also used occasionally by cattle. Some cattle ranches are not fenced and the animals cross the roadway from time to time. Needless to say, a collision with a full-grown steer can be disastrous for you as well as him, says the California State Automobile Association. Heed that sign and keep a sharp lookout for roaming cattle.

An effort was made in 1858 to organize the State of Jefferson, to include the present area of Colorado and large areas now within the States of Nebraska, Wyoming and Utah.

Flowers Spread Fame of State At GOP Confab

California's international fame as a flower state will receive unprecedented accent during the Republican National Convention in San Francisco next week.

From the time they set foot in the City of the Golden Gate until the final, post convention "alohas" delegates and their families will receive daily floral gifts from California floral associations cooperating with the convention's State Host Committee.

Participating in the program are the California State Florists Association, the San Francisco Retail Florists Association and the Master Florists of Oakland and their respective members.

The "greeting with flowers" program will be launched by telegrams to the California guests inviting their ladies to drop into San Francisco flower shops and choose welcoming corsages, Arthur Bell, president of the state association, announced.

Nosegays will be delivered to their hotel rooms each day.

California blossoms will share in the splendor of the State Reception and Grand Ball, led by Governor and Mrs. Goodwin J. Knight on behalf of the Host Committee and scheduled for the evening of August 20 in the San Francisco Civic Auditorium. The women will be presented with orchids, flown up by the Southern California association and the gentlemen will receive boutonnieres.

Focal point of the gala event's floral decorations will be a gigantic elephant designed by A. R. Stole, president of the San Francisco retail group, and made entirely of flowers. It will measure 20 feet in height.

The guest list of the reception is expected to exceed 8,000. In addition to the out-of-state visitors, invitees will include representative Californians from every district of the State, and the honored guests of the convention.

California has ranked first in the U. S. in value of farm crops in 21 of the past 26 years.

At the time of the discovery of gold, San Francisco had 900 inhabitants living in 200 houses.

County Now Has 221,121 Vehicles, Report Reveals

There were 221,121 registered vehicles in Santa Clara County at the end of first six months of 1956, the State Department of Motor Vehicles reported this week. Of this total 180,391 were automobiles, 24,708 were trucks, 14,604 trailers and 1418 motorcycles.

With one exception, the number of registered vehicles in California, county by county, continued to increase for the first six months of 1956, it was reported by State Director of Motor Vehicles Paul Mason.

The exception was Alpine County, which showed a decrease of 20 per cent, from 414 registered vehicles in the first half of 1955 to 346 in the same period this year.

Counties with the highest increase this year are Inyo and Orange, each up 22 per cent.

Los Angeles County, with 41 per cent of all vehicles registered in the state, showed a first-half increase of 7 per cent.

The state total of fee-paid registered vehicles for the current year period, January 1 through June 30, was 6,594,140, an increase of 8 per cent. In addition, there were registered 79,557 exempt vehicles, making a grand total of 6,673,697.

HOSPITAL RATES UP

O'Connor Hospital has followed the pattern set by other bay-area hospitals and increased its room rates.

The new rates are $20 for a four-bed ward up to $30 for a single room with a shower. These changes have been made necessary by the rising cost of food supplies and hospital equipment, according to Sister Helen, O'Connor Hospital administrator.
